

"As a trader, I want to trade goods with NPCs in a region so that I can earn more credits"

"As a player, I want to be able to view changes to my credits and view skill points in the Player Profile so I can make decisions on what to buy at marketplaces."

"I want to view information of previously visited regions so I can decide to visit new regions or return to a previously visited region"

"As a player, I want to be able to configure my name, game difficulty, and skill levels so I can create the kind of character I want. "

As the commander of the spaceship, I want to travel to another planet so that I can trade with other people.
